It's written in the (gold) stars

Whether it be onboard or ashore, Celestyal is continuously being recognized for leading the way with over 60 accolades in the past five years.

"Celestyal Cruises' approach to service is the same as its approach to cruising— authentic, personalized and warm. From wait staff to cabin stewards, bar staff to officers, nothing is too much trouble and the line goes out of its way to ensure each passenger feels special and happy to be onboard. It's a well-deserved win for this small-ship line."

Cruise Critic, Editors' Picks, Best Service 2023.

Since we first set sail in 2014, we've made our guests a little bit starry eyed over what we offer onboard and on shore. In fact, we've picked up more than 60 accolades for our flexible itineraries, breathtaking destinations and inclusive approach to solo travel over the last five years.

One of our brightest achievements is winning multiple awards for excellent service. Making you feel like a VIP is always our North Star.

Let our customers do the talking...

“ Absolutely everything was done exceptionally well! Our cabin was immaculately clean, the crew were friendly and answered our questions (very helpful!), we loved the towels made into shapes, and treats! The food was delicious, with pleasant & kind staff.

We loved relaxing on our balcony, and on reclining chairs other places. Music for dinner was fun—the musicians and singer seemed so happy and enjoying themselves! Waiting for the tender at Milos, it was awesome to have iced towels. The crew on shore at all the ports were very helpful and guided us to & from the ship (good signs and banners, and crew members there, too).

“ We had an amazing time! The excursions were absolutely amazing and prepared with every detail in mind. The guides were so knowledgeable and we loved that the excursions were separated by preferred language.

I was super impressed with how clean the ship was (the late night crew even sanitized the stairs railing). Even the wooden deck 7 was without any inconvenience beautifully sanded and stained. The care put into making their ship clean and shiny was visible in all areas and appreciated by us!

The very last morning at the breakfast we all agreed that we would love to do it all over again!

“ My husband and I had a fantastic time on our first cruise experience. Celestyal couldn't have done more to make the trip easy and stress free.

There were lots of staff on hand to help, our cabin was larger than we expected, cleaned twice a day and the food was exceptional—lots of traditional choices but variety so something for everyone.

The boat was a great size, not too big or crowded but large enough that there were entertainment options all day and night, 2 pools, lots of different bars, activities, spa facilities and shops.

“ We thoroughly enjoyed the Greek hospitality onboard and with the itinerary it was superb for ourselves who have an appreciation for ancient history that we explored at each port of call. Thank you to the Celestyal Team for a very enjoyable experience.

For more than a millennium and a half, this timeless metropolis was the capital of empires.

With its multifaceted history contributing to a vibrant atmosphere today, there's definitely something unique about Kavala, called "the blue city" on account of the crystal-clear waters of its coasts and dreamy sea views. This atmospheric northern port city on the Thracian Sea is 27 centuries old, having been founded in the seventh century BC by settlers from the nearby Aegean island of Thassos. Back then the new town was called Neapolis, which was allied with Athens through the Peloponnesian War and later belonged to the Second Athenian League. Eventually, it would be conquered by the ancient Kingdom of Macedonia and its present name of Kavala is said to be based on the name of Alexander the Great's favorite horse. Apostle Paul arrived at Kavala (then still Neapolis) on his first voyage to Europe. In and around the city today, early Christian pilgrimage sites mix with evocative remnants of Ottoman architecture like the Imaret.

After you've delved deep into Kotor's past, its surrounding nature provides respite. Take it in with a refreshing drink overlooking the towering mountains and glittering, yacht-studded bay.

Kuşadası

In the great atlas of Mediterranean antiquity, few cities shone as bright as Ephesus, part of Izmir province and the most culturally significant and best-preserved ancient city in Turkey. And Kuşadası, which dominates the gulf of the same name along this stretch of the Aegean coast, is one of the most vibrant and popular destinations in modern Turkey. It's been an important port for centuries, hosting a variety of civilizations, and for a time, some of the most infamous pirates of the Mediterranean. The Öküz Mehmet Pasha Caravanserai was built in 1618, confirming Kuşadası's role as a prominent Ottoman trading center. Sizzling beaches next to sparkling blue water, lively bars and a bustling Grand Bazaar add up to exciting times in this buzzing Turkish city, but above all, it is the chief point of entry to the magnificent ruins of Ephesus. South of Kuşadası, ruins of the ancient Greek city of Miletus are located near the mouth of the legendary Meander River.

Your destinations

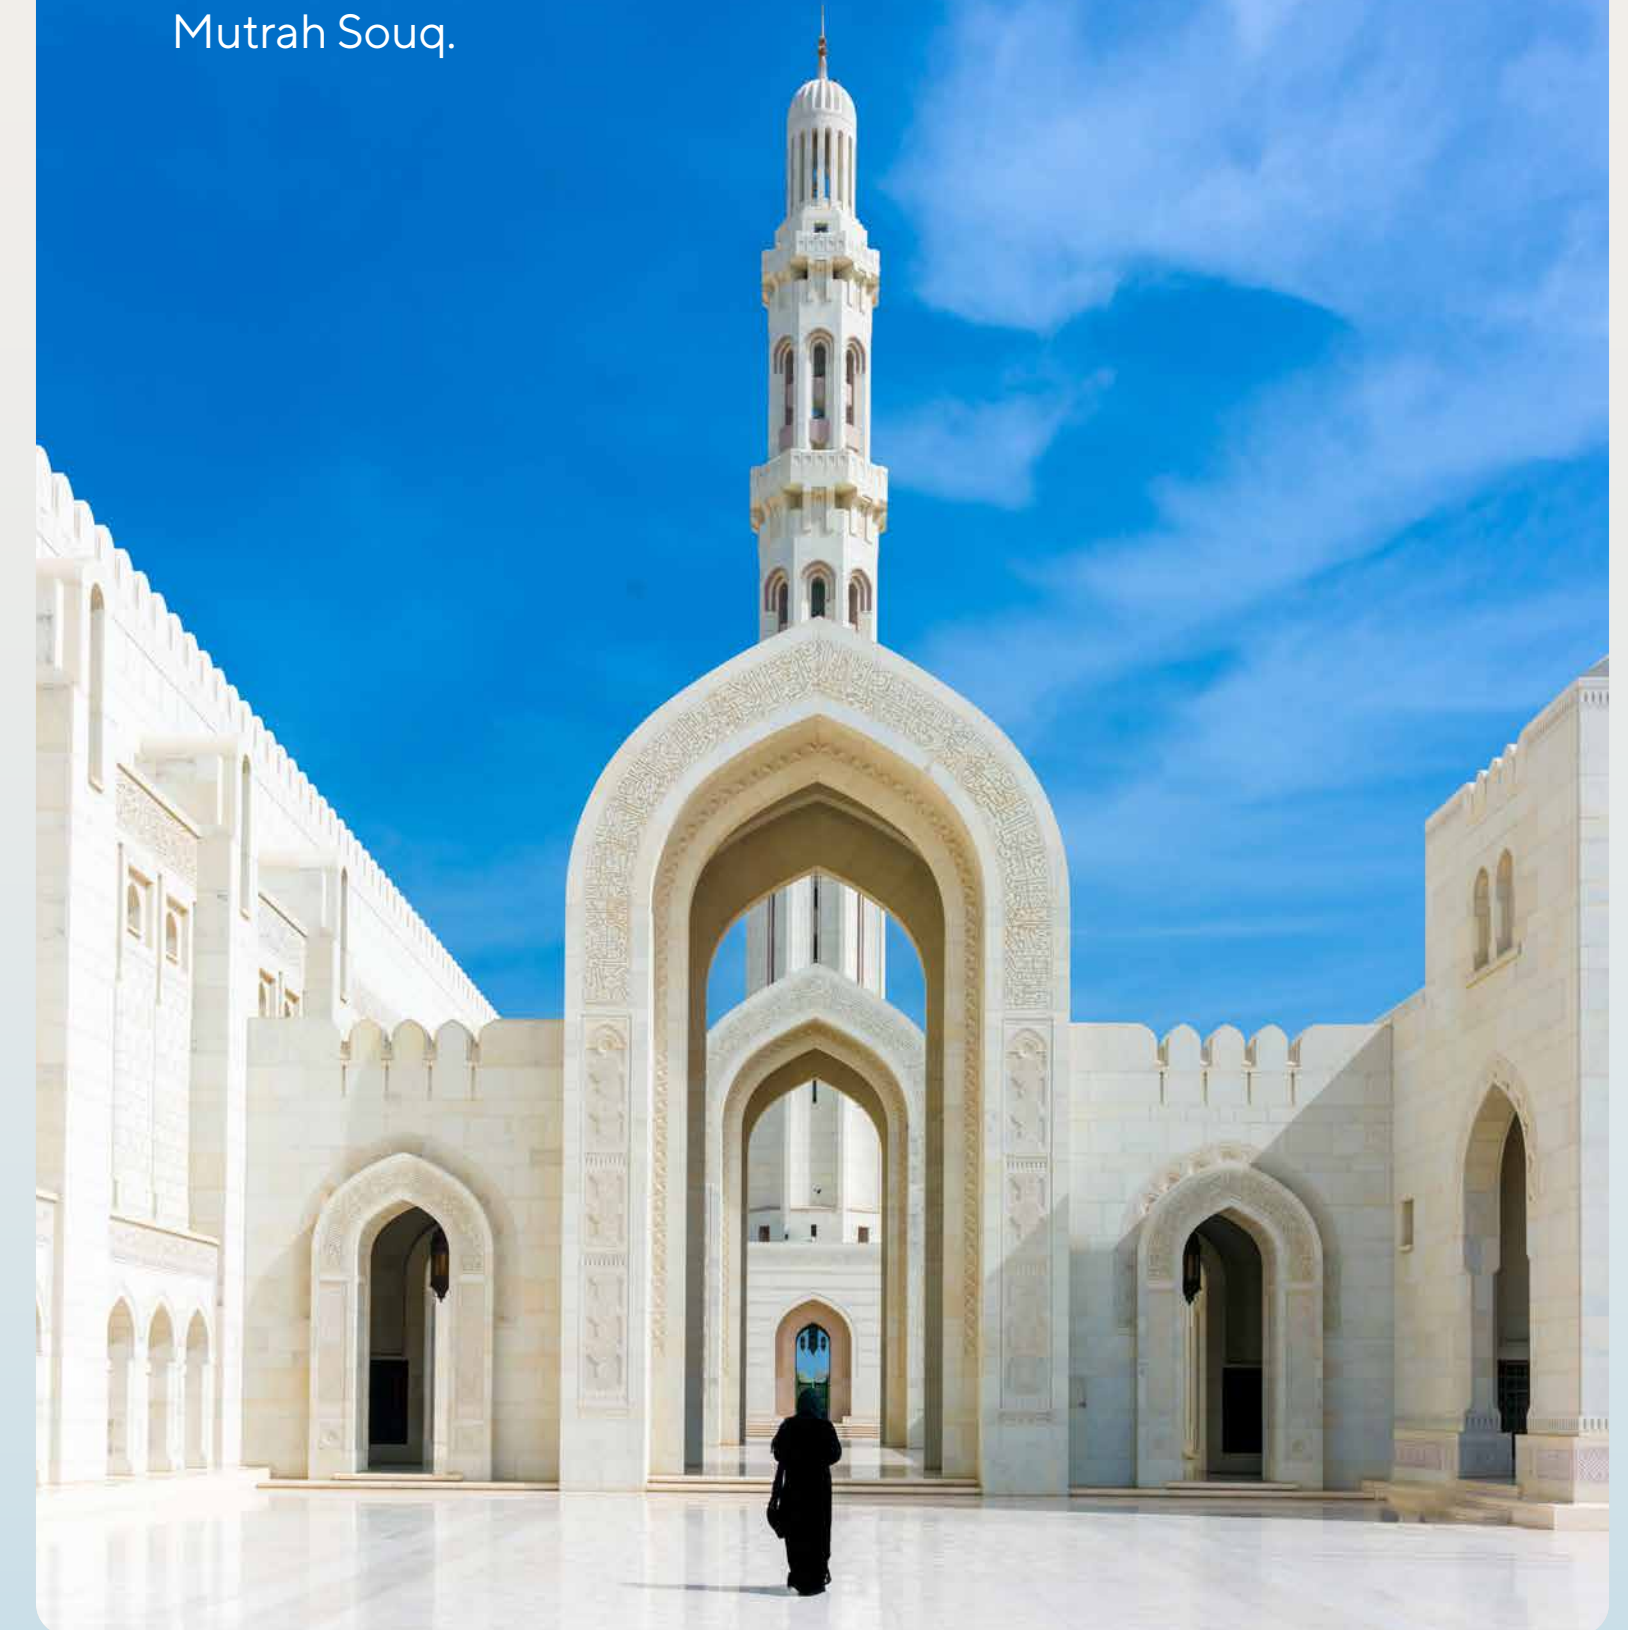

Milos

The horseshoe-shaped Greek island of Milos, which is the southernmost island of the western Cyclades, is truly an unsung pearl of the Aegean. Volcanic in origin, the island has a stunning array of landscapes and beaches with backdrops of multicolored cliffs and water that dazzles with crystalline greens and blues. Its captivating geological formations are the result of undersea eruptions that started perhaps up to three million years ago, which piled up layers of lava that reacted to the island's geothermal waters and created a kaleidoscope of rock formations and sea stacks like the rock of Arkouda that jut up spectacularly from the sea floor in many places along the island's 78 miles of coastline. Look carefully and you can sometimes even see steam rising from fumaroles on both land and sea, and there are abundant mineral springs on the island too. Milos does not have a caldera like nearby Santorini, but it is full of marvels forged by nature, making it a sensory feast unlike any other.

Muscat

Prepare to be enchanted by Muscat's blend of ancient culture and modern flair. This gem in the Persian Gulf will be your playground for the day, with serene beaches and majestic forts that offer a glimpse into Oman's rich heritage. Against a backdrop of dramatic mountains, you can stroll along the Corniche, witness the grandeur of the Sultan Qaboos Grand Mosque and haggle for the perfect souvenir in the vibrant Mutrah Souq.

Your destinations

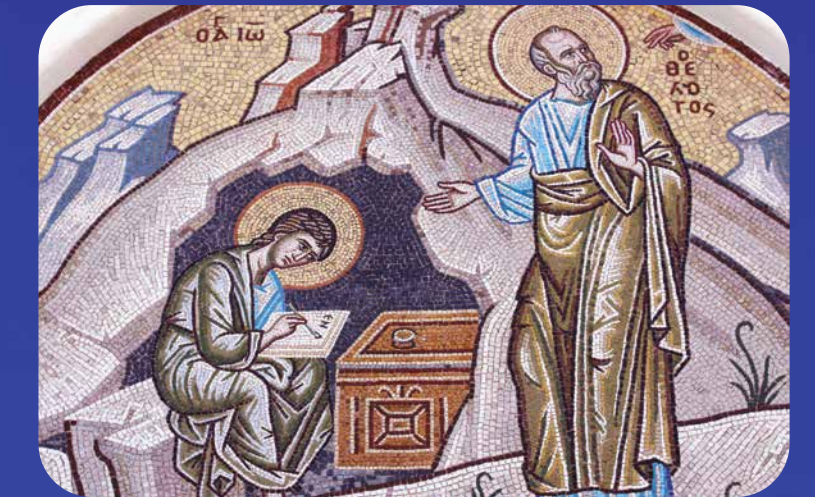

Mykonos

There is no Greek island more synonymous with carefree times, glitz and glamour than Mykonos. At just 33 square miles, Mykonos is a small island, but it's filled with excitement, especially in the long Greek summer. Mykonos has a very rocky terrain and its windiness (the "meltemia") can sometimes surprise you, but you'll also find some of the most amazing beaches around and a cosmopolitan vibe you simply won't find anywhere else. The main town, Chora, is famous for its winding lanes lined with gleaming white cubiform houses with painted blue doors and sophisticated shops and restaurants, but beyond the town, Mykonos retains a refreshingly bucolic atmosphere. In fact, Nikos Kazantzakis, author of Zorba the Greek, once wrote that "Mykonos is wonderful...the air, the earth, the dry mountain, the simple people, their dialect, the figs, the grapes, the thyme, the mint..." He might have added to the craze—in a good way—because from the 1960s onward Mykonos has been a magnet for bohemians, celebrities and revelers of all stripes.

Patmos

Could any Greek island be more a picture of perfection than beautiful Patmos? It isn't every place that can be called the Jerusalem of the Aegean, but then Patmos is the custodian of an exceptional cultural heritage because it is the island where John the Apostle wrote the Book of Revelation, the final book of the New Testament. This starring role in the Bible imbues the island with an unmistakable spiritual calm that makes it truly unique in the Mediterranean and a magnet for the Christian faithful. And the atmosphere is even more special on account of the fact that the religious ceremonies and customs still taking place haven't changed since early Christian times. Adding to the sense of tranquility is the fact that Patmos has no airport—as in centuries, past arrival to the island is by ship or ferry only. Approaching Patmos by sea, you can't help but be bewitched by the chiseled contours of the coast and you'll find that serenity reigns onshore in equal measure.

Your destinations

Rhodes

There are islands in the Mediterranean with captivating history, fantastic beaches and beautiful scenery, and then there is an island like Rhodes that quite literally has it all. Long before the days of the Roman Empire, many maritime trails led to Rhodes, the largest of Greece’s Dodecanese islands, named for the native pink hibiscus flowers. Unlike some popular Greek islands like Mykonos and Santorini, Rhodes is lush and green, a veritable garden in the eastern Aegean. And with an area of 541 square miles, it’s large too. Rhodes is also home to some of the most spectacular medieval fortifications anywhere, built by the Knights of the Order of Saint John in the 14th century. The virtually intact Palace of the Grand Master in the town of Rhodes is a Gothic jewel right out of a fairytale. This, combined with the Street of the Knights and around 200 winding lanes, creates a dazzling, living tapestry. The island of Rhodes is in many ways a microcosm of Greece. The Old Town of Rhodes, at the northernmost point of the island, is probably the best-preserved medieval city in all of Europe. Midway down the eastern side, Lindos—around 34 miles south of Rhodes town—blends archaeological intrigue with a panoramic town that is more reminiscent of a Cycladic island like Mykonos.

Santorini

Few islands have the power to captivate the way Santorini does. Gorgeous and cosmopolitan, it’s famous for that classic Greek island look with white painted houses clustered along narrow winding lanes, perched atop reddish-black volcanic cliffs that tumble down more than a thousand feet to the wide caldera. It’s easy to see how this island, the pearl of the Cycladic archipelago, can lay claim to being the source of the legend of Atlantis. Santorini, or “Thera” in Greek, is most celebrated for the dramatic views of its volcanic caldera, formed during a massive eruption around 1646 BC. That eruption shook up the island—making its center actually collapse—but also created some of the most spectacular scenery in the world.

Your destinations

Sir Bani Yas Island

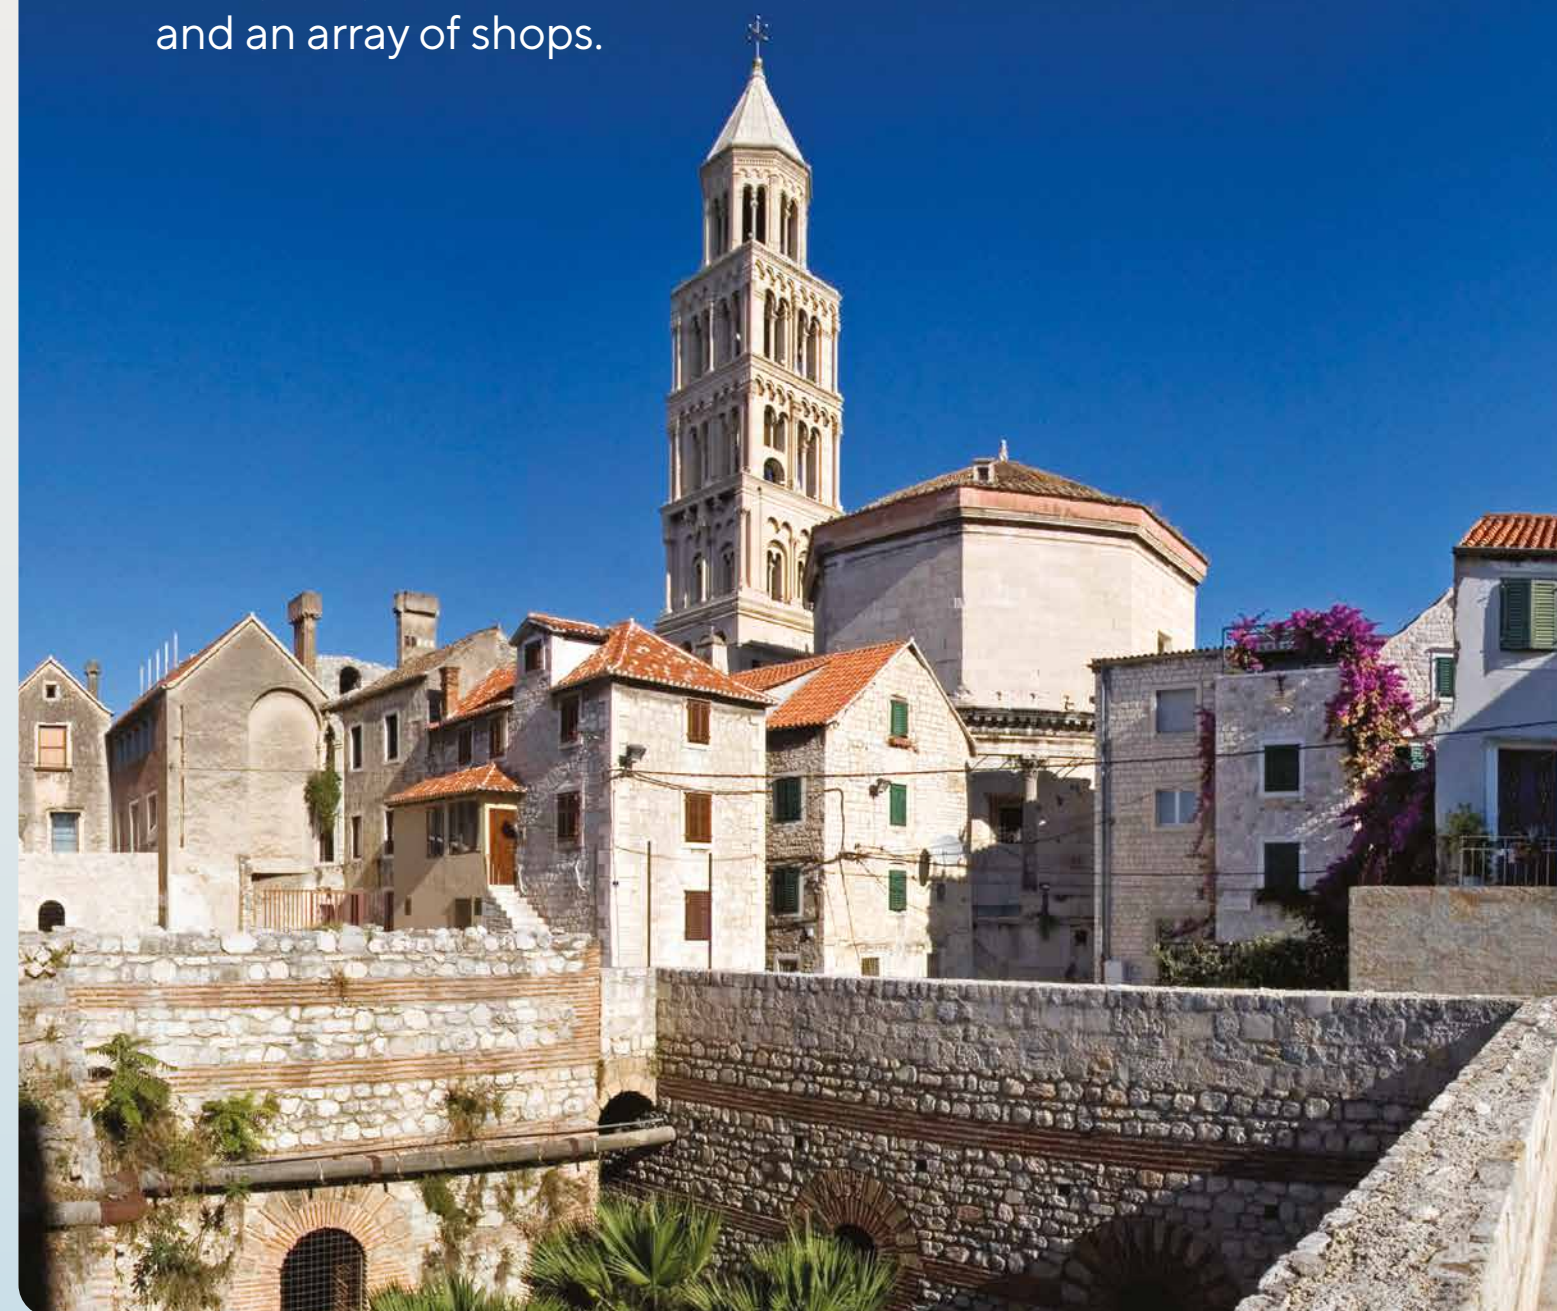

Go wild for this island oasis, where nature and luxury intertwine on the shores of the Persian Gulf. One of the eight desert islands of Al Dhafra, it offers a unique escape where you can get up close to thousands of free-roaming animals at the Arabian Wildlife Park, including gazelles, hyenas and cheetahs. Explore the island's heritage sites or head to one of its pristine beaches: perfect for sunbathing, snorkeling, or, in the case of Al Yamm beach, watching flamingos in a nearby lagoon. This truly is a nature lover's paradise.

Split

Split is the second-largest city in Croatia, a coastal metropolis that blends ancient history with modern life. It was founded over 2,000 years ago, and became an important settlement in Roman times. At the heart of Split is Diocletian's Palace, built for the Roman emperor at the turn of the 4th century and now a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

The palace covered around 11,500 square miles; it wasn't just an imperial residence but a military garrison. Over the centuries, it slowly grew and turned into a town. But the well-preserved ancient columns, courtyards and cavernous cellars still remain, offering a fascinating glimpse into Roman life. Today they're filled with buzzing cafes and bars, lively markets and an array of shops.

Thessaloniki

"There is a homeland for everyone, while there is Thessaloniki," wrote Nikiforos Choumnos, a 14th-century Byzantine dignitary and scholar. And he was right; Thessaloniki is a gorgeous and cosmopolitan seaside city and the largest in Greece after Athens. This historic capital of the Macedonia region was founded in 315 BC by the Macedonian king Cassander and named after his wife who was a half-sister of Alexander the Great. This is the city that in the days of Philip II of Macedon would steal Athens' thunder. It's relatively flat but there are simply mountains of history: Roman and Byzantine ruins, early Christian heritage (the Apostle Paul brought the first message of Christianity here in 50 BC), Pontic Greeks and Armenians, remnants of Venetian and Ottoman rule and perhaps most movingly, a remarkable Jewish history too. Centuries of cultural commingling has also made Thessaloniki a culinary nirvana, with almost too many great restaurants and little eateries to count.

Your destinations

Venice

Venice is a magical destination like no other place on Earth; it is a floating city made up of more than 100 islands in a shallow lagoon, separated by canals and connected by bridges. Considered to be one of Europe's most romantic cities, it's famous for its stunning mix of architecture, unique atmosphere and its classic boat, the gondola.

The Grand Canal separates the two halves of the city's historic center, where you can only get around by boat or by foot. With no cars, you can wander to your heart's content through winding alleys, discovering picture-perfect scenes at every turn. Take the time to admire the magnificent St. Mark's Basilica, stroll through vibrant markets, and savor fresh seafood in a traditional trattoria.

A world of wellness (and workouts)

The Sozo Experience is an entire deck dedicated to the kind of luxury onboard lifestyle that takes R&R to a whole new stratosphere. Sozo is a Greek word meaning healing in mind, body, and spirit. Which is exactly what you'll experience in these indulgent surroundings.

Drift away on a sea of tranquility in the Sozo Spa, floating from massage to manicure and from facials to full body treatments. Let our skillful stylists and beauty experts dial up your natural radiance in the Glow Bar. Additionally, don't miss the chance to sail into serenity in the Drift Den: get steamy in the Thermae or unwind in the relaxation area. You'll even find a hidden gem of a pool where you can take a refreshing dip before heading back to the sauna.

Stay in motion on the ocean, whatever your fitness levels. Work up a sweat, build your biceps (triceps, quads, and all), or stretch it out on the mats. Prefer the open air? Take in the views as you pace (or stroll) around the outdoor jogging track.

Decadent downtime

Your comfort and happiness are our North Star, and nowhere is that more important than our cabins.

Our 630 seafaring sanctuaries have fresh towels and toiletries, serviced twice a day, with a personal steward on hand to deliver room service 24/7. And there's plenty of creature comforts, including adjustable air conditioning, a hairdryer, a safe and a TV.

If you choose a balconied Dream Suite, you'll also get a wider choice of inclusive restaurants and exclusive access to Rays, a secluded and tranquil outdoor space. Book a Grand Dream Suite, and you'll gain even more: access to the Compass Lounge, priority check-in and concierge service.

Our ultimate hideaway is the Stargazer Suite: a penthouse suite with a private terrace, whirlpool bathtub and its own catering and dining area—perfect for special occasions.

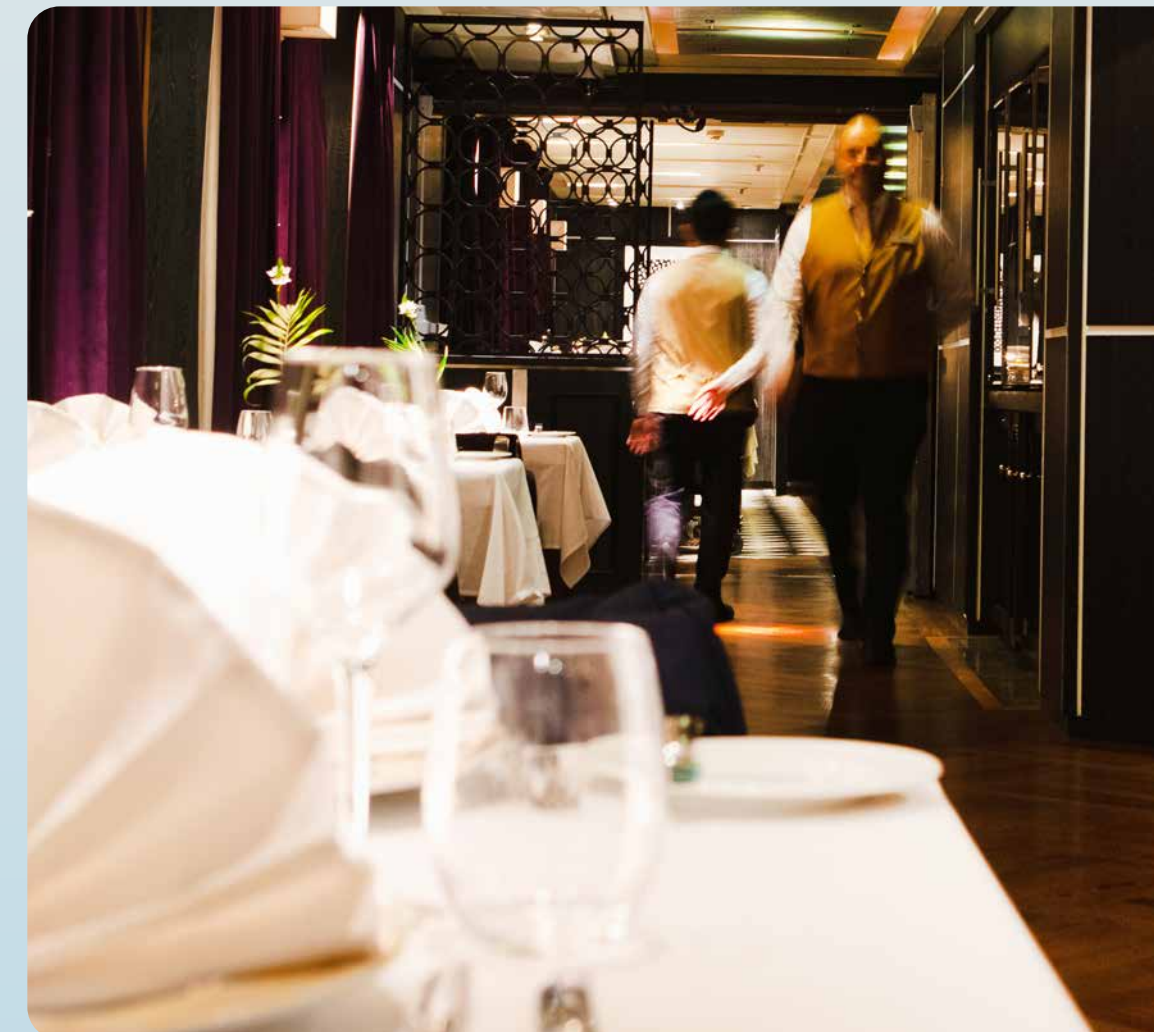

A taste for adventure

With seven restaurants onboard, there is a world of flavors to savor. From daytime Greek grazing to indulgent specialty dining, our fresh, authentic fare is guaranteed to please your palate.

From the bountiful buffet of the Taverna and the daily a la carte specials of the Thalassa Restaurant to the ultimate in exclusive, private dining at The Chef's Table, we cater for both quick bites and hearty appetites. Try Grill Seekers for a spectacular set menu, Surf and Turf or take your tastebuds on a culinary journey. Find exquisite, Asian-inspired cuisine at Pink Moon; authentic, Mediterranean dishes from Smoked Olive; and Greek flavors to grab and go from our Greek Deli.

Raise the bar

Pre-dinner mojitos (or mocktails). Fresh juices or energy-boosting smoothies. Refreshing pint or warming brandy. Whatever your drink of choice, we guarantee it will pair well with panoramic sea views and a canopy of stars.

Slide into the Blue Bar & Lounge for mellow piano tunes and laid-back lounging.

Linger over crisp whites and full-bodied reds at The Grapevine. Pick up the pace at the Fizz Club, where our signature cocktails are certain to get you into the holiday spirit. And head to the Amphitheatro for daily shows and lively entertainment until the early hours of the morning.

You'll find your daily dose of vitamin sea with juices and gelato on the deck at Fig and Honey. If you're in one of our Grand Dream suites or the Stargazer Penthouse Suite, you'll also have access to Rays on our VIP sundeck and our concierge lounge, The Compass.

Work the room

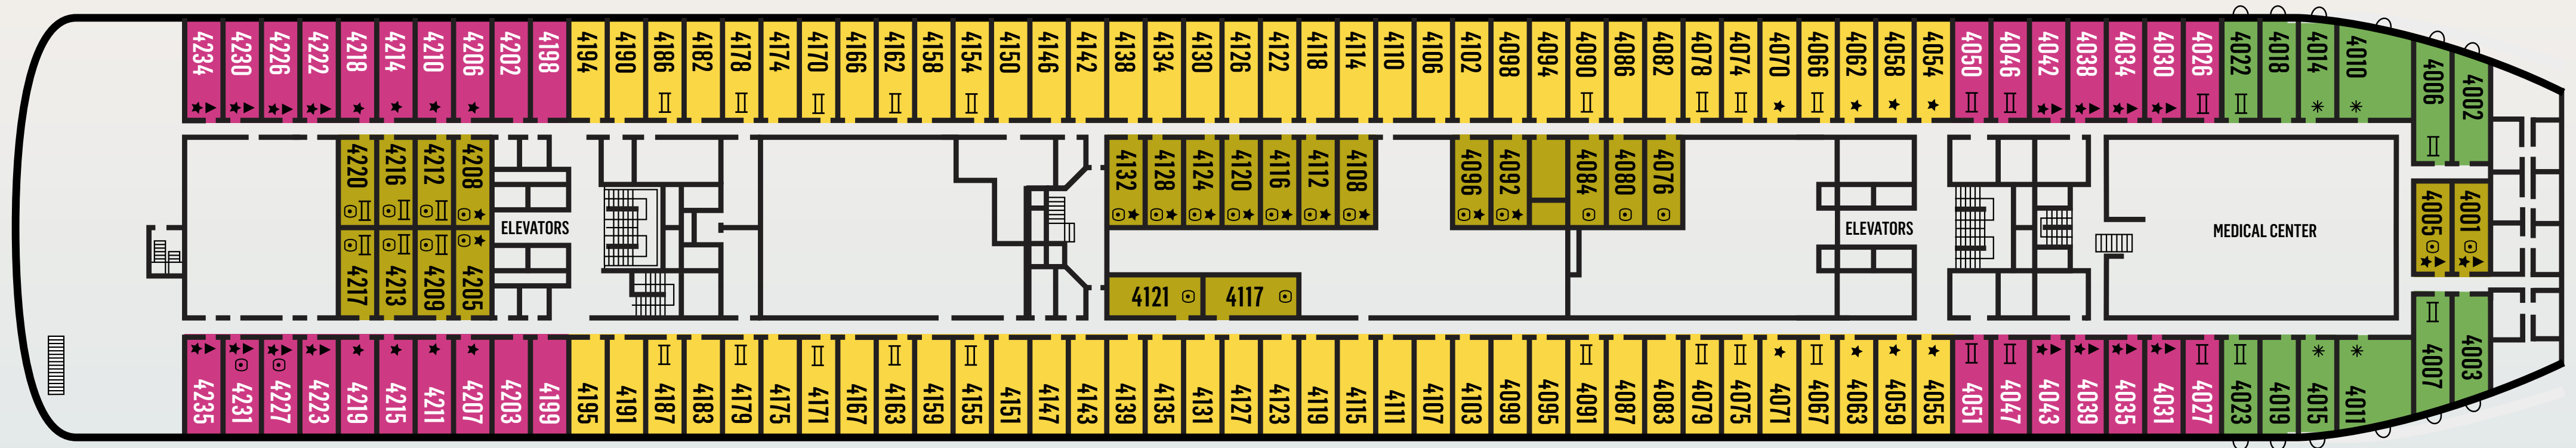

Make light work of business. Whether you're treating your team or entertaining a potential new client, we'll help you shine.

Our boardroom is the business. Our two fully equipped conference rooms (with WiFi included, of course) are the perfect places to make a stellar impression. And the multi-purpose, spectacular Amphitheatro can be commandeered for dramatic events and impactful team gatherings.

No matter whether you're onboard for business or pleasure, our tax-free shop is the perfect place to add a shimmering touch to your outfit or find a memorable souvenir to take home with you.
